Lutest from the Great International Mil-Letter from the Healeta Boy-The Picht Will Certainly Take Place-Heenan in a Splendid Condition - Letter from his John C. Heenan writes to this week's New York Chipper from London, his letter bearing date of April 7, as follows:

You will have heard the news of my arrest, through your letters. I have just this mo-ment arrived in London, and one of the first men I met was your reporter, Mr. Wm. ment arrived in London, and one of the first men I met was your reporter, Mr. Wm. Bryant, in whose presence I am now writing this hurried letter. I have had an examina-tion, and given bail, and at once there-after came to London. I know not yet where I will finish my training, but it will make no difference, as I am well, and will be ready on the day mentioned. the day mentioned. In haste, yours, J. C. HEENAN.

A letter, dated at Bedford, England, from ugilist, observes:

With the exception of Jack McDonald and Owen Swift, I have yet to hear of the first fighting man who fancies Sayers is his match. To their question, "Is Heenan what they say he is over in America?" "Yes, I think he is," "Then, s'help me God, he must lick Sayers in twenty minutes."

The London Era, of April 8, in an article on the subject of the prize fight and the men,

Morrissey is prominent as an adversary of Heenan. This personage has come over specially to support Sayers, and has brought with him a magnificent brooch worth $600, or £130, which he intends to present to Sayers should he win the fight. Should Heenan prove the winner, our belief is that it will be mainly to take the belt over to America, so that Tom Sayers may bring it back again. The Chipper, speaking of the "Boy's" arrest, Heenan has proved himself above all taint of suspicion. We can readily understand why the Boy trained in the places mentioned. He was desirous of being retired, free from the annoyance of visitors from London, etc., and chose those spots.

Bell's Life, it appears, in the excitement of the moment, seems to have censured Heenan for going to counties to train where the people are opposed to the P. R. We must not take for granted or gospel all that is published by the London papers in respect to this match. They all have a feeling in the matter, and that feeling is in favor of their own countryman! There are few persons in England to advocate the Boy's interest, and therefore more necessary it is to be on our guard against statements made by London papers only.

Jack McDonald, Heenan's trainer, writes at place near London:

a place near London:

We have now settled down in a very nice village near Bedford—a good high and dry country, with the best roads in England. I am happy to inform you that, with all this shifting about, we never lost much time. We soon got in full swing again. All these changes seemed to amuse Heenan. As he traveled along he would remark: "We are getting plenty of fresh air, and to-morrow plenty of work." The latter I find him very able and willing to do. He has, and can do any quantity of work, and eats and drinks all regularly, and is as frisky as a cat, and fit to fight to-morrow.

In fact, he is in most splendid condition, all regularly, and is as frisky as a cat, and fit to fight to-morrow.

In fact, he is in most splendid condition, and will look a perfect picture when stripped in the ring. He says he never was like this before; we intend to keep him so, or improve him if possible. I have seen him spar, and I can not tell you how Tom Sayers is to get at him to beat him. He may get at him, but take my word for it, he can not beat Heenan. Barring accidents, the Benicia is just the man to wear the belt. Do not think he is going to follow Sayers. You will hear, when the news reaches you, that Heenan has beat him at his own game. I have never seen a man in more perfect condition than the Benicia, and in this our friend Cusick agrees with me. This training has put eleven years longer in him. If he should lose this fight, I am a bad judge.

I remain, yours truly.

JOHN McDONALD.

VASTNESS AND EXTENT OF THE MISSISSIPPI.
A writer, referring to the vastness of the Mississippi River says: "It extends 2,100 miles from the frozen regions of the North to the sunny South, and with the Missouri River is 4,500 miles in length. It would reach from New York across the Atlantic Ocean, or from France to Turkey and the Caspian Sea. Its average depth is fifty feet and its width half a mile. The floods are more than a month traveling from its source to its delta. The trappers can exchange the furs of animals traveling from its source to its delta. The trappers can exchange the furs of animals caught by them on the Upper Mississippi for the tropical fruits gathered on the banks below. The total value of steamers ashad on the river and its tributaries is more than $60,000,000, numbering 1,600 boats, with more than twice the steamboat tonnage of England. It drains an area of 1,200,000 square miles and washes the shores of twelve powerful States. In one single reservoir at Lake Pepin, between Wisconsin and Minnesota, 2,500 miles from the sea, the navies of the world might safely ride anchor."

A MISSISSIPPI OPINION OF WHAT PAYOR SHOULD HAVE DONE.—Alluding to the late "affair of honor" between Pryor and Potter, the Raymond (Miss.) Gasetie says it "inclines to the opinion that the Southern members, when driven to the necessity of challenging the Black Republicans to mortal combat, should carry the game out, and fight them, if they do propose knives or unusual terms of combat. If Pryor can't fight with a knife, he ought to resign and let his constituents elect some one who can."

MORE ABOUT MACREADY'S SHOOND MAR-MORE ABOUT MAGNEADY'S SECOND MARMAGNE.—The bride of Macready, who, as we have stready mentioned, was remarried recently in England, is named Cecilis L. F.
Spencer, and has just reached her twentythird year, while the retired tragedian is more than sixty-eight. Macready has left his home at Sherbourne to take up his residence elsewhere. The bride is the granddaughter of the late Sir Wm. Beechey.

A MORTAL DEGRADATION.-Dr. John W. Robinson, Secretary of State for Kansas, under the Wyandotte Constitution, was lately slapped, spit upon, and cowhided by Lieut. McIntyre, of Fort Riley, at Junction City. He was there in company with the notorious Kalloch, of Boston, the libidinous preacher. Robinson would be justified in killing McIntyre fifty years here, though he stood over tyre fifty years hence, though he stood over the bier of his last friend.

Mail Rosseums in Georgia.—A Macon, Ga., merchant informs the Citizen, of that place, that within a month past he has lost $6,000 by the non-receipt of letters containing remittances. Two of the missing letters had been "registered."

THE LATE SLAUGHTER AT ROME.—The surgical reports to the Roman Government, made up to the 22d ult., show that one hundred and forty-seven persons had been killed on the sudden outbreak of the 19th.

REVOLUTIONARY CREMEATION.—The people of Lexington, Massachusetts, on Thursday, celebrated the anniversary of the first Revolutionary battle, though the arrangements were not on a large scale. Governor Banks delivered an address in the evening.

Macaulay's Miscellaneous Writings. Macaulay's death has given a sudden im etus to the demand for his works in Eng and, and the publishers there are turily en gaged in satisfying this demand. The Messra Lougman have put to press their cel-lection of Macaulay's miscellancous writings lection of Macaulay's miscellaneous writings, which will form two volumes. The poetry includes an epitaph on Henry Martyn, written when Macaulay was twelve years old, and lines to the memory of Pitt, written in his thirteenth year. For the next seven years, he produced no poetry, until in his twentieth year, when he wrote a radical war song and a ballad, "The Queen is Come." Messrs. Nisbett & Co., another London house, will soon issue a volume of the correspondence between Macaulay and Hannah More, under the title: "Letters of Hannah More to Zachary Macaulay, Esg., containing notices under the title: "Letters of Hannah More to Zachary Macaulay, Esq., containing notices of Lord Macaulay's youth." Edited and ar-ranged by Arthur Roberts, M. A., Rector of Woodersing, Norfolk. In this country the demand for Macaulay's works is also very lively, and we hear that a well-known Boston firm have in contemplation an entirely new and complete edition of the writings of the great historian.

THE CHIEF OF THE K. G. C.'S A SWINDLES TO THE EXTENT OF $40,000 .- The New Orleans correspondent of the Charleston Mercury says:

General George Bickley, who was run off from this city by Major Joseph Howell, and who proposes to call a Convention of the Knights of the Golden Circle at Raleigh, N. C., is said to have swindled the young men throughout the South out of a sum amount-ing to about $40,000, in the way of initiation fees. There is no doubt but that he is an im-poster, or he would never have left New Orleans under the gross insult and impeach-ment of his character without a clearance or

A Woman Tarred and Fratherro by Her Ows Sex.—A few days since, fifteen young men and five young women went to the house of Elisha Whipple, in the south part of Portland, New York, broke it open, and took one of his girls, a young woman, out of bed, and tarred and feathered her, alleging as a reason for the act, that she was of a disreputable character, and that the house was disorderly. The women did the tarring and feathering—the men retiring while the ceremony was being performed.

A Westched Wife Attempts Suidibe.—
A woman in Newark, N. J., recently made an attempt to destroy her life, by throwing herself upon the track of the railroad, when a train was approaching. She was fortunately discovered and removed, but she subsequently repeated the act, and was again prevented. The woman alleges as the cause of the rash act, that her husband, Jacob Reber, refuses to work, and that she is compelled to furnish support for the family from her own hard earnings.

AMERICAN LUMBER FOR THE HOLY LAND.—
A firm in Savannah have just received an order for 200,000 feet of pine lumber for the Holy Land. Portions of the cargo are despendent of the cargo are despendent. Holy Land. Portions of the cargo are destined for Jerusalem and Damascus. A similar venture made last year was successful. As the Savannab Republicon truly remarks. "There is something novel in the thought that the palaces of the Holy Land are to be rebuilt with materials taken from the forests of Georgia."

ALLEGED MARVELOUS VIRTUES OF A MADSTONE.—The Holly Springs (Miss.) Herald Mys a mad-stone is now in the possession of Colonel B. S. Milam, who lives between Waterford and Chulshoma, in Marshal County. This mad-stone has been in the possession of the Milam family for more than forty years, and has been the means of permanently curing more than a thousand persons, from the bites of mad-dogs, cats, snakes and sniders. When properly applied, it has never been known to fail.

GENERAL HAVELOCK'S STATUE .- The mode for the statue of General Havelock has been completed, and is at the foundary where it is to be east in bronze. The work is by Behnes, and is said to be in every way worthy of the strict's entire. artist's genius. The statue is to be placed in Trafalgar Square in August. Another statue by the same artist is to be erected in Sunderand, where Havelock was born.

An Old Negro Turning White.—The Eufala (Ala.) Spirit states that there is an old negro pilot on one of the Chattahooche River steamers, whose skin is changing from a jet black to the fairest white. His neck and arms, as far down as his fingers, are of a smooth, soft, delicate whiteness, that would rival that of the tenderest, purest Circassian. His lips are of a soft, ruddy hue, and his face and body are beginning to show the same radical, wonderful change.

THE VALUE OF A WOMAN'S LEG DETERMINED.—Miss Mary E. Cloyes recently sued the Boston and Worcester Railroad Company for $20,000 damages for the loss of a leg, by an accident on that road, and a jury gave her an award of $10,000. According to this verdict, her whole body ought to be worth at least $1,000,000, though, unfortunately, an army of women could be bought, body and soul, for one-tenth of that sum.

Hornials Accident—Two Man Burned Alive.—Two well-diggers, Thomas Adams and Solomon Martz, were engaged in their avocation on Tuesday, about two miles from Dayton, O., at the distance of sixty-four feet below the soil, when the earth caved in and buried them both alive. At last accounts the bodies had not been recovered.

TAMBBELLE THE TENOR. Tamberlik, the TAMBRALIK THE TENOR.—Tamberlik, the famous tenor, is again in Paris, creating as great a furore as last season. His "Otello" is the most extraordinary performance I have ever witnessed. It is highly probable that Tamberlik will soon visit the United States, when you will have an opportunity of judging of his rare musical and dramatic powers.

A NEW-BORN INFANT KILLED AND EATEN BY RAYS.—A poor Irish woman, Mary Connor, gave birth, a night or two since, in Bellevue Hospital, New York, to an infant when the rats, which infest the institution, killed the child and partially devoured it; the suffering female, from her extreme weakness, being unable to drive them away from their horrid benome:

WHEREAROUTS OF A CLERICAL LEGUER Dis-coveren,—The Rev. Mr. Keesy, of Westmore-land County, Pa., who several months ago eloped from his wife, in company with a fac-tory girl of Allegheny City, named Minnie Sawer, has been heard of at Toronto, Canada, where he is engaged in teaching school.

More Dramas from Dumas fire Younger, Alexander Dumes, jr., now in Italy for the benefit of his health, will, it is said, on his return to Paris, bring with him two new pieces, in which, for the first time, he has left the Demi monde, and appears in respectable society. The title of them are, Les Hommes et les Femmes and Le Jalou.

NEW NOVEL BY ONE OF THE TROLLOPES.—Anthony Trollope's new novel, in three volumes, nearly ready for publication, is entitled Castle Richmond, and treats of Ireland during the first visitation of the potato disease, about cleven or twelve years ago. A CONTRACTOR EXTENSIVELY FINED.— Albert Stein has been found guilty of supply-ing the citizens of Mobile with poisonous water, and fined $2,000, having used lead in-stead of iron pipes for the leads in the water works of that city.

A Robber Assumes the Character of a Lover-A Piquant Experience in the Life of Fauny Ellaler. A Spanish paper relates the following very piquant story of Fanny Ellsler, the famous danseuse:

During a voyage, the illustrious ballerina recognized, in the disgnise of a sallor, a gentleman of fine appearance and address, who, during the engagement from which she was just departing, had been one of her most persevering admirers; who had transfixed here eyes, cannonaded her with bouquets, and bombarded her with sighs. Thus discovered, he threw himself at her feet, and begged her, in the name of Cupid, to pardon the trick which love alone had suggested. He was inspired, tender, and impassioned; and Fanny, in taking leave of him, cursed, perhaps, in her heart that inexorable virtue to which women in general, and danseuses in particufamous danseuse :-

er heart that inexpracts virtue to which comes in general, and dansenses in particular, are proverbially condemned.

Re-entering her cabin, she was soon softly deeping to the undulations of the vessel and the masical nurmur of the waves. All at once she was awakened by a warm breath upon her face. A few words even of tenderness escaped, as if involuntarily, from a trembling mouth; when a hand boildly glided, not where she had expected but under the bolster, in search of a little bronge coffer in which the denseuse was in the habit of carrying her gold, diamonds, and bank notes. Satisfied thus of the intentions of her visitor, the intropid Fanny, by an involve of sublines. Satisfied thus of the intentions of her visitor, the intentie Fanny, by an impalse of sublime and acity, threw off the coverlet, thrust her nude and enowy limbs out of bed, and applied so vigorous a kick to the stomuch of the thief that he measured his length upon the floor and cupiously ejected blood. The alarm being given, the fellow was secured, and subsequently recognized as one of the most notorious and daring robbers of Great Release.

American Belles in Europe Their Desire for Noble Alliances.

The editor of the Courrier des Etats Unis writes home from Paris, after speaking of the official announcement of Miss Hutton, of New York, with the Marquis de Portes, that the Marquis is much younger than his intended, who must have inspired her lover with a profound regard to enable him to overcome the resistance of his mother, a highly aristocratic lady, who said, at the time the marriage of M. de Morny with this same Miss Hutton was talked of, "that she could not understand how a gentleman could stoop to marry the daughter of a trader in silks and calicoes." The old lady has not however, much right to feel so proud, for her mother was a sempstress, and her husband's family dates its nobility but a hundred years ago.

They talk also of the appreciation of the semi-years ago.

They talk, also, of the approaching marriage of another American lady, Miss Phalen, with a count or marquis of the Faubourg St. Germain. The rich republicans of the United States are fuscinated with titles. Nobility, the only thing they can obtain there, them the attraction of forbidden fruit.

HYGIENE ADVANTAGE OF WEARING HAIR ON THE FACE.—The deaths by consumption have decreased some fifty per cent. per annum among the stone-cutters of Quincy, Milton, Rockport, and the marble works of Vermont, since they have ceased shaving. Workmen in Western flour-mills, colliers in the numerous mines of the middle States; miners at Galena, Dubuque, and the copper regions of Lake Superior, employes in drug-mills, drivers, engineers, Arctic navigators, residents in low, wet countries, and thousands of artisans, whose employment is prejudicial to healthy lungs, generally wear the mossiteche as a santiary rather than an ornamental appendage to the face of manhood. HYGIENE ADVANTAGE OF WEARING HAIR

A NEW AND SUPERIOR KIND OF GAR TO BE Using.—The Photographic News predicts the destruction of the gas company monopoly by the introduction of a gas produced by impregaating super heated steam with coal tar. It is thus produced at an excessively low price, and with great rapidity. It is found to contain one-half less oxide of carbon and twice as much bicarburetted hydrogen as company gas and is therefore twice as value. common gas, and is, therefore, twice as valuable. It is also very durable, and after being kept for five months in gasometers, it exhibited no change and left no deposit. One of its merits consists in its being entirely free from sulphurretted hydrogen. Its practical utility will soon be tested.

A SOUTHERN JOURNAL ON THE IMMORALITY OF NEW YORK.—The N. O. Bulletin exposes the frightful increase of erime and immorality in New York, and says alarmingly enough: "We consider the condition of New York as really frightful. It seems to us that it rests, even now, upon a heaving volcano, ready at any moment to burst forth in a tornado of burning lays. We are told that many of its merchants encourage, quietly, the formation and drill of military companies in anticipation of the evil day. Let no one suppose that we write thus with secret exultation. God forbid that we should have so much of the fiend in us." A SOUTHERN JOURNAL ON THE IMMORALITY

EXTRAORDINARY ACCESSION TO THE CATROLIC CRURCH IN THE SOUTH.—The Charleston (S. C.) Mercury, of late date, says:

On Sunday, last, being Low Sunday, Rt. Rev. Bishop Lyach administered the Sacrament of Confirmation at early Mass, at the Cathedral of St. John and St. Finbar, to twenty-two youths and, fifty-five young ladies; and on the same day, during High Mass, at St. Mary's Church, the Sacrament was administered to ten youths and twenty-two young ladies. The entire number, one hundred and ains, and some additional adults, assembled during Vespers at the Cathedral, where they received their baptismal yows.

A PLANTER LEGALLY RECOVERS A FORTUNE A PLANTER LEGALLY RECOVERS A FORTUNE THOM A DISHONEST BROTHER-IN-LAW.—Some years since, Warrick Martin, a Louisiana planter, placed $60,000 in the hands of a brother-in-law named Brooks, of Belmont, Wis., for investment in lands, and subsequently received back the principal under the pretense by Brooks that the investments were failures, and that Martin might consider himself lucky in getting out so well. Martin having found out that Brooks made and pocketed two or three hundred thousand dollars by the operation, brought suit in the ollars by the operation, brought suit in the S. Circuit Court, and got a verdict for the Famals Traveless Receive a Royal Syr-Perd.—Two Swedish ladies, the teacher, Miss Henrietta Certengren, and the singer; Miss Sarah Magnus, have received traveling sul-pends from the King of Sweden to the amount of 1,000 reichsthalers each, in order to con-tinue their studies abroad. The first-named of these indies is especially to acquire knowledge in the different countries of Europe, on the best methods of femals instruction.

A MELANCHOLY GAME INDRED .- On a West A.MELAYCHOLY GAME IEDRED.—On a West-ern steamboat the usual amount of gambling and other expedients for getting rid of time was resorted to, and one evening some of the passengers asked the captain if he had any objections to their holding a prayer-meeting in the cabin—"None at all, gentlemen," was his bland reply, "amuse yourselves in any way you like; only remember that it is a rule of the boat that all games must cease at ten o'clock."

Long-Preserved Webbind Care.—The Elmira (Ili.)
